1913 Craftsman Home that is surrounded by views of the mountains and they are breathtaking during this time of the year. The home was built by T.J. Davis of Charlotte and was president of Elba Manufacturing. This is a historic landmark for Little Switzerland. The original interior woodwork is a clear chestnut wood, wrap-around covered porch, and there is a rear glass porch entrance. This home has a spacious center hallway, formal dining room, original front doors and hardware. There is a grand stairway that leads to the upper level area of the home. A total of (6) bedrooms completes this home, (2) on the 1st level and (4) on the 2nd level. Original hardwood floors and windows throughout the home. Total of 5.57 acres of land completes this package.
